

I don't want ANY business, organization, or person calling my home in order to promote their agenda. That is what storefronts are for, and that is why businesses allocate a percentage of their income to advertising in newspapers and on TV.

If they create a loophole so banks can call their customers, I will no longer be one of their customers.

My life is hectic enough, and nothing makes me angrier than to stop what I'm doing to answer the phone only to discover that it is yet one more person trying to get their hands on my money.
